Welcome to Class XI

Dear Students

Welcome to the start of a New Session. Tomorrow we shall begin the online classes and I can proudly say that we have a team of qualified, trained and experienced teachers to guide you in your academic journey. But, it is YOU who have to take the first step towards success. Therefore, engage actively, take full advantage of every opportunity that comes your way. We have allotted you sections as per your choice of stream and will not entertain any request for section change. You may apply for a change in optional subject (if you want) through an application sent to your class teachers latest by 5th May 2021. You will find the links for your classes scheduled for tomorrow only in your respective class WhatsApp groups by this evening. Links for classes will otherwise be posted in your Google classroom from Monday. In case of any other doubts or clarification, please be in touch with your class teacher.

All the best !!

Notice for Role Play Debate

"Laziness Fuels More Laziness Activity Fuels More Activity"

Keeping this in mind we are conducting a Virtual Role Play Debate for class XII (Commerce and Humanities) on 26th April 2021 (Monday) at 11 am. The topic for the same is "This house believes that the Covid-19 pandemic has changed the education system forever". Students have to represent either a teacher or a student. 4 students from each section will participate, wherein 2 participants will play the role of a teacher and the other 2 participants will play the role of a student. Similarly, each section will represent two students FOR the topic and two students AGAINST the topic. The time limit for each participant is 3 minutes. The debate will be followed by a group discussion (5 minutes) where the participants will discuss and conclude the topic. Class teachers are requested to finalize the participants and share their names and representations by 22nd April 2021.
